

Grievance Procedures

All student complaints should be communicated to the Campus Director. Students that have addressed their concerns to the Campus Director and have not reached their desired outcome, or have an issue directly related to the Campus Director are encouraged to follow the grievance procedure outlined in the student catalog, which encourages students to write a letter to Tony, CEO of MyComputerCareer, by going to <http://info.mycomputercareer.com/dear-tony>. The student will be contacted and an attempt to resolve the complaint internally to the satisfaction of the student, within reasonable discretion. Students are encouraged to go through this internal complaint process as a first attempt to resolve any complaints. If the complaint cannot be resolved, the student will be referred to file a formal complaint with a higher governing authority listed below:
